New Release

"A Woman Like You" by Lee Brice

Any country song that says your partner is better than all your favorite things is a winner. In this one, the singer says he'd give up his project car, deep-sea fishing, guys' poker night, and a host of other things if he can spend the rest of his life with his lover. It's a little more upbeat, but it's also a gentle reminder that your partner is worth the effort.
